

Immigration & Asylum

Two gates to residency, and a separate track for protection that opens the moment a claim is filed. The executive issues credentials but cannot withhold them; the courts stay in every loop; and some doors are nailed shut — no ideological screening, no nationality quotas, no indefinite stateless detention.

Article VI — §6.1–§6.2,
§6.3, §6.3.a

THE TWO-STAGE RESIDENCY SYSTEM — §6.1, §6.2

THE SEPARATE ASYLUM TRACK — §6.3

Inhabitant from the date of filing
§1.21 · OWN CONSTITUTIONAL TRACK

Asylum bypasses the dual gate entirely — no State can extinguish a claim by refusing to sponsor. From filing, the claimant holds full Article I protection and social-state access; claims are decided before any removal. Manner of entry is irrelevant, and no penalty may attach to irregular entry while a claim is pending or granted. The Asylum Court is independent of both executives — the Legislature may not make it a subdivision of either. Unaccompanied minors are Inhabitants from first contact, get a federal guardian within 72 hours, and may never be held in a facility not built for children.

DOORS NAILED SHUT — §6.1, §6.3, §6.3.A

- No Ideological Screening
At no stage, ever.
- No Nationality Quotas
Prohibited at every stage.
- No Indefinite Stateless Detention
Constitutionally barred, always.
- No §1.6 Discrimination in Tax or Sponsorship
Equality reaches into both.

NUMBERS WORTH REMEMBERING

- 2 gates to residency — State sponsorship + federal certification. Asylum uses neither.
- 72 hours to appoint a federal guardian for an unaccompanied minor (§6.3).
- 90 days — first mandatory judicial review of any unresolvable-case detention (§6.3.a).
- 180 days — the recurring review interval thereafter; never over 5 years without annual review.
